

Hold Tight Please!: Home Guard Murder Mystery (murder mystery, suspense, thriller, comedy, world war two, London blitz)

This quick-read murder mystery suspense thriller plays out during the London blitz of 1941 when two separate home guard units become entangled in what is presumed to be the murder of a German spy. An elderly NCO recalls having seen the victim before and informs the police who link his intelligence to the activities of a known racketeer. Suspense abounds in the blackout as the police home in on the suspect and black market racketeering becomes secondary to cold blooded murder.
