

My Mouserace

Duncan Gillespie, in his mouserace, has professionally written over twelve million words, has been fencer to a duke, a tank transporter driver, a man in the manse, the maker of hundreds of gallons of wine and thousands of gallons of home-brewed beer, the grower of fields of dahlias, and a friend of church-goers, folk-singers and horsemen. Although he never graduated to the rat-race, his autobiography contains stories you will find nowhere else; read in particular his chapter on the Untidy World. His mouserace has been long - 81 years to date - but never dull!
