

An Immodest Proposal

It was supposed to have been a celebration of her upcoming nuptials a ball to which all the lights of London society had been invited. Instead, Sophia Lamott must smile, curtsy and pretend she hasn't just been jilted by her long-standing fiancé. When the relentless sympathy becomes unbearable, Sophie takes refuge in the privacy of the library and resolves to get good and drunk. But things get out of hand. Before she knows it, she's being kissed by the most exciting man she has ever met. She must then face up to the Summer Wildfire's malicious gossips who would delight in dragging Sophie's name through the mud and convince them they only imagined the dark, mysterious stranger they saw disappearing into the shadows. And then, there is the morning after to contend with---And, if you enjoyed An Immodest Proposal, be sure to check out The Clarendon Rose, Kathryn Anthony's other Regency Historical romance novel.
