

Why The Angels Laughed

Due to demands for the book When the Angels Laughed, which is out of print, I have decided to republish it. Participants of Community Bible Study (which has classes in most major cities around the country) have been asking for the book. Also, inquiries from others who have heard about the book, and how God miraculously rescued me from near-death and dangerous experiences, have influenced my decision to re-publish. In order to update the readers, I have added an epilogue as well as re-written some of the chapters that have relevancy to my current activities and thinking. I only wish that Howard Norton, my co-author were here with me to do this. He went to be with the Lord in 1994. It is my hope that this second edition will help many those who know me and those who have heard about God's divine intervention in my life. By having the opportunity to read this new edition Why the Angels Laughed, I hope that you will be blessed and greatly encouraged. Dr. Eddy Swieson, a retired Presbyterian minister, currently lives in San Diego with his wife, Deborah. He volunteers at the San Diego International Airport as Airport Security Checkpoint Line Management Analyst.
