

Annes House of Dreams

Is it settled yet where you are going to live? asked Diana, cuddling Small Anne Cordelia with the inimitable gesture of motherhood which always sent through Annes heart, filled with sweet, unuttered dreams and hopes, a thrill that was half pure pleasure and half a strange, ethereal pain. Yes. That was what I wanted to tell you when I phoned to you to come down today. By the way, I cant realize that we really have telephones in Avonlea now. It sounds so preposterously up-to-date and modernish for this darling, leisurely old place.
