Excerpt from Address of Hon. J. M. Ashley at the Fourth Annual Banquet of the Ohio Republican League: Held at Memorial Hall, Toledo, Ohio, February 12, 1891 At Alton, Illinois, in October, 1858, I first met Abraham Lincoln. It was on the day he closed the historic joint debate of that year, with Stephen A. Douglas. My anxiety to see and hear the man whose great Speech at Springfield in June had electrified the entire country was so intense that immediately after our election in Ohio I ran down over the Wabash, and saw and heard Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Douglas in their closing debate at Alton. I returned home at once, so as to be present and celebrate my first election to Congress. I had accepted an invitation from the Republican Committee of Illinois to accompany Governor Chase and speak at several points in that State and remain; until the close of the campaign in November.
