

Battling with the Lord: Journey in the Mind Body and Spirit

This book is about my journey with God. The purpose of this book is to strengthen, motivate, and inspire one to get themselves through some of the most difficult times when walking and building a relationship with God. We are all made of three things which is mind, body and spirit. Your mind and body are real, but its temporary. It will stay for some time, but it will dissolve over time. This book illustrates current life situations that happen to people living in the world today. I believe we are a spirit in a body walking through this world. Your spirit /soul which is unseen shall live on.
