

Brazil and the Monroe Doctrine (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Brazil and the Monroe Doctrine
A Illusao Americana, the famous book published in Brazil soon after the proclamation of the Republic, undoubtedly created a deep impression throughout the country. Its author, a young and ardent Monarchist, sought to combat to the death, by any and all means, the system of government which we had adopted, and which was nothing more nor less than an intelligent and well wrought-out adaptation of the political formul? which had largely contributed to the rapid growth and antonishing prosperity of the United States of America.About the Publisher
