

Something Borrowed

Her best friend is the best man for the job. When her successful brother announces his plans for an impromptu wedding in Ireland, unlucky-in-love chef Sasha Arrington is stuck between the Blarney Stone and a hard place. Their overbearing parents are sure to turn the long weekend into her own personal hell unless she can distract them from her roller coaster career and her terrible track record with men. So when her best friend offers to pose as her date, Sasha jumps at the chance. Ambitious chef James Sullivan always gets what he wants, except the one thing he wants most: the sexy kitchen partner he's been secretly attracted to for months. But this time, he's got the luck of the Irish on his side. Sasha needs a wingman for her brother's wedding, and the romantic destination could be just what Sully needs to tempt Sasha out of the friend zone. Between the gorgeous locale and the undeniable attraction between them, Sasha and Sully's friendship quickly goes from simmer to sizzle. But Sasha's reasons for guarding her heart run deep. When she discovers that Sully isn't all that he seems, will she be able to go from fling to forever? Or will Sully's luck run out?
