

City of Winchester, Virginia, Register of Births, 1853-1891, Volume 1, 1853-1860

This compilation was abstracted from the birth records of the city of Winchester, Virginia, which are housed at city hall, and are not to be found at the Frederick County Court House. The birth records presented here are all the extant city birth records for the period 1853-1860, the records for the years 1861-1864 having been lost during the Civil War. Entries include the following information (where available): infants name and line number in the register, date of birth, sex, race, parents names, and fathers occupation. Occasionally given are: fathers residence, a grandparents name, and/or physicians name. The Transcribers Index lists the full name of the child, register page, and line number.
