

A Second Chance at Paris (Bayous End Book 1)

Sexy, sweet, and satisfying...a delicious take on the what-ifs of life. - USA Today & NY Times Bestselling Author Diane Alberts / Jen McLaughlin One week in Paris. One chance with her childhood crush. And one lie that could ruin it all. Before she was Dr. Celeste London, Astrophysicist, she was Mary Celeste Haverford: dork, loser, the geek formerly known as Hairy Mary. But she left all that behind--and left Ion Blackwell behind, nothing but an unrequited crush and the memory of a high school field trip, a night in Paris, and the words Celeste never had the courage to say. She never expected to see him again until a surprise encounter on a Parisian riverboat tour brings him back into her life, and gives her the opportunity to start over as someone new. Someone Ion doesn't recognize, transformed from a social outcast into a polished, professional woman that Ion doesn't realize is the girl he's been longing for since childhood, the ideal he's dreamed of his entire life. Suddenly this vivacious (if charmingly awkward) new woman is teaching him that real love is better than any dream--but Celeste is hiding more than her identity. Hiding something that makes it hard to trust her increasingly erratic behavior, and her frequent secretive phone calls. When the truth comes out, the deception could shatter them both...unless they can give each other a second chance, and take a risk on love. DISCOVER BREATHLESS ROMANCE IN BAYOUS END
