Excerpt from Communist Domination of Certain Unions: Report of the Subcommittee on Labor and Labor-Management Relations of the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare United States Senate Eighty-Second Congress Session on Communist Domination of Certain Unions On November 5, 1949, William Steinberg, president of the American Radio Association, and a member of the CIO executive board, charged that the policies and activities of the United Office and Professional Workers of America are consistently directed toward the achievement of the program or the purposes of the Communist Party rather than the objectives set forth in the constitution of the CIO. The charges were received by the executive board and it authorized the appointment of a committee to conduct hearings and to report back to the board. President Murray designated Emil Rieve, Harry Sayre, and Joseph Beirne, all of whom are members of the CIO executive board, as a committee to conduct hearings and this designation was approved by the executive board. Notice was duly given to the Uopwa of the existence of the charges and of the appointment of the committee. On November 23, 1949, the chairman gave notice to the Uopwa that a hearing would be held on December 15, 1949. The Uopwa, on December 9, 1949, however, filed suit in a Federal district court in Philadelphia in an attempt to enjoin this committee from holding a hearing. Although no restraining order was issued by the court, the general counsel of the CIO agreed to a postponement of the hearing on the Uopwa in order to permit the court to dispose of that suit. Because of this delay, committee member Beirne was unable to attend the hearing and President Murray, pursuant to the resolution of the executive board of November 5, 1949, exercised his power of appointment to appoint an additional member of the committee. Martin Wagner, president of the United Gas, Coke, and Chemical Workers, and a member of the CIO executive board. The committee, as thus constituted, held a hearing in Washington on December 19, 1949, after the Philadelphia suit had been dismissed. At this hearing the charging party, Mr. William Steinberg, and the CIO's director of research, Mr. Stanley Ruttenberg, appeared. Mr. Steinberg gave an introductory statement in which he stated the basis for the charge. Mr. Ruttenberg presented a detailed analysis of the policies of the Communist Party and of the Uopwa and presented documentary material to the committee on this subject. On behalf of the Uopwa, its president, Mr. James Durkin, its secretary-treasurer, Mr. Bernard Mooney, and six other officials of the union, comprising its entire national administrative committee appeared.
