

Rock & Ice: Love at 18 Degrees

Rock & Ice, Love at 18 Degrees (Contemporary Romance) Who Has Time For Love? Okay, let's say you're a big time rock star, known the world over. Let's also say you love to play hockey and have since you were six years old. But as a celebrity you can't play without being mobbed and increasing the danger to your safety. So the only way for you to play the sport you love so much is to play incognito, become a different person. Now let's say while you are in the role of your alter ego, you meet someone. Someone that has such an effect on you, you can't think about anything else. If you tell her the truth, everything will change. But how long until you can be honest? Do you continue life the way you always have, happy, very happy, or do you risk it all for love?
