

The Haunted Maze

Still in his twenties, Percy Callendar is one of the richest men in the world. In an attempt to find the future love of his life and because he likes to have fun he builds the ultimate haunted house and assembles a select group of men to go through it. Sage Donovan, owner of a fledgling IT company, is the seventh applicant to receive an invitation. He figures completing the maze something no one has done yet will guarantee fame and maybe fortune, and he immediately accepts despite having a little problem with anxiety. Witches, spiders, ghosts and ghouls are the least Sage has to deal with, because before the night is over, he will face his deepest fear, changing his life and Percys forever.
