

Heart of Darkness

Sam Seeley was the product of a broken home. At the tender age of 11, Sam brutally murdered a man to protect a friend, Alexis, but it didn't stop there. That first kill of Al Carson, gave Sam something no one prior offered; love, but it was a different kind of love, the love to kill. Knowing only the atmosphere of a dysfunctional family, Sam left home at the age of 16 living from hotel to hotel; earning money any way possible. The torturous murders continued and no evidence collected implicated Sam until the man with a package. During the investigation of a murder where Sam was seen fleeing the area, the man made a statement he didn't see the perpetrator's face. When Sam spoke with the man, it was made clear he had lied. This was confusing to Sam and the man with the package would be the next victim; or was he? A twisted serial killer was on the verge of learning news that changed everything.
