

Skyline: Tales of Manhattan

In SKYLINE: TALES OF MANHATTAN, award-winning playwright and author William Ivor Fowkes presents 19 stories of New Yorkers (gay, straight, and confused) making startling connections and discoveries proving once again that Manhattan residents are just as striking as the city's celebrated skyline. Park Avenue. A Park Avenue Republican gets a taste of life on the down low in Central Park. Twin Towers. A transplanted New Orleans cabaret singer deals with life and love in the aftermath of 9/11. Dummy Copy. A SoHo graphic designer takes drastic steps to get the attention of her editor. Chrysler. A man becomes obsessed with the Chrysler Building. A Proper Bed. A suburban family man is distracted by the men he sees on the streets of Manhattan.

Not Here Yet. Two women fight over a very small piece of real estate. A Modest Proposal. Two copywriters working at the same ad agency in the 1980s discover they both have a secret life. The Church. A proud agnostic is drawn into a church where he is mesmerized by what he finds. The Museum. At MOMA, a woman physically attacks a man examining a sculpture she doesn't like. Snap. A 42-year-old woman takes refuge on a park bench to contemplate her latest romantic disaster. The Dakota. Two worlds collide when a reclusive resident of New York's most famed apartment building cruises for sex on the Internet. The Century. A man finally tells his therapist what's really on his mind. Headlines. A man's furtive sex life lands him on the front page of The New York Post. Lincoln Towers. An aging resident of the Upper West Side's city within a city finds life increasingly mystifying. Ashes. A man stumbles into the wrong funeral, but makes an unexpected connection with the deceased. The Haircut. A man approaching his 60th birthday tries a new haircut, with disastrous consequences.

Chamber Music. A mans mind wanders during a private concert in honor of Mozarts 250th birthday. Wallpaper. A struggling writer in the East Village papers his kitchen wall with rejection letters. Metastory. A writer argues with himself as he tries to compose a short story about writing a short story.
