

My Story: A Remembrance of My Life for My Daughters

I was adopted as a baby in 1941 two months after I was born. In 1995 The State of Tennessee passed a new adoption law. As part of the new law, people adopted before 1951 were allowed to see their records. In October, 1995 I saw my adoption records. Based on the information in the records I was able to find my birth family and piece together my early life. In this booklet, My Story, I have compiled memories of my childhood and my life for my daughters.
