

The Author

Up and coming writer Tan Whitley has chosen his next location for his new book and it just so happens that Louisville is also where his ex-girlfriend Karen calls home. Its been six years since they dated, but Karen still hasnt moved on. When Tan comes to town to write, he is faced with many different challenges, and not all from Karen. While writing his novel, Tan starts to see that Elise, his main character, is a lot like Karen. Wondering about Karen, and how their life together might have been, Tan has to decide if he should stay moved on and let Karen live her life, or if he should get back together with her, as he finishes his book. Is Tan meant to write this book at this time to get back with Karen, or is this just coincidence? Find out how real love works in the life of The Author. Author Bio: Up and coming author Tyson Peterson is twenty-seven years old and resides in Springville, Utah.
