

In the Beginning

Children love to hear Bible stories about Adam and Eve living in the garden surrounded by animals. They can recite the facts of the story of Noah and the ark. And they enjoy putting on a multicolored coat and pretending to be Joseph. But stories from Genesis aren't just for children. Adults can learn valuable life lessons from an in-depth study of this book - lessons about the consequences of disobedience to God, drunkenness, and family rejection to name a few. Justin Rogers provides clear insights into events that are fundamental in our growth as Christians. He shows how the men and women in the book of Genesis submitted their lives in service to God, providing trustworthy examples that still hold true today. So open your Bible to Genesis 1:1 and renew your appreciation for In the Beginning ...
