

Follow: A Handbook for Making Disciples of Jesus Christ

We have learned that the first couple months in the life of a new believer is critical. They are hungry. They are alive. They want to grow. They are also in a unique position to share their story with their friends. It is your job to help them grow as a follower of Christ. But, most Christians have never made a disciple. If you are like most Christians, you don't even know where to start. After all, the Bible is a big book. What do you teach first? How do you equip them to follow Jesus on their own? Follow: A Handbook for Making Disciples of Jesus Christ helps you know where to start. You can read the book and walk a new believer through the content or you can have them read it and discuss it later. The book includes discussion questions to help train rather than merely teach a disciple. A fundamental premise to this book is that everyone can make disciples. You don't need to be a pastor, and you don't need years of training. All you need is to know Jesus and allow the Holy Spirit to lead you as you lead others to follow Jesus. As you make disciples, commission them to make disciples as well. If you can make disciples who make disciples, there is no limit to the advancement of God's Kingdom. Think multiplication, not merely growth.
