

Dont You Think My Mommy is Pretty: A sweet short story about a military romance.

Tammy, widowed mother of one, has spent the last two years trying to overcome the death of her husband while simultaneously raising her son Timmy. When Carl was killed while on deployment in Afghanistan, her entire world came crashing down around her. She swore she would never again let herself get involved with a man in uniform. It was clear, however, that the Lord had different plans in mind when He brought Larson Sherman into her life. Will she be able to move past her fears and let herself become swept away by the confident, attractive service man? Or will she deny herself her chance at happiness in order to protect her heart?
