

Perceiver

A young girl is found in the desert on a top secret military base, barely clinging to life. The incident is compounded by bizarre circumstances. The girl has no memory of who she is or what happened to her. But one thing instantly becomes astonishingly clear she may be one of the most powerful psychics ever discovered. She soon proves adept at using her mind to view distant and remote locations, and uses this ability to spy for the U.S. government. But what are her true motives? Perceiver is the story of the people who fall under her spell and how one of them falls disastrously in love with her.
