

Sand Witch (Morrighan Love Book 1)

Life is a cauldron where magic breeds. Sometimes Fate has to take us by the hand and out of our comfort zone, into a potential we couldn't imagine for ourselves. Jude has had enough of the rat race and takes himself far away to the desert hollows of a hot and dry Utah in mid summer. He's signed up for a vision quest with a sand witch. Out in the desert with all those stars at night, with sand that stays warm long after the sun goes down, he falls into a love so deep it feels like a spell. Sharlee knew he would come, she's known for months. The ether whispers precognition to her, but when the man from her visions crosses her threshold she finally knows safety, friendship, and love, from one overflowing cup. She knew he'd bring out the best in her, but she couldn't predict his abundant sense of humor. Despite bullets flying, drugged drowning, and an ex with a penchant for necromancy, Jude never stops making her smile. The lawyer is a goofball, but he's her goofball. When the spheres sing, destiny unfolds.
