

Surviving Spirits

When Father Ignacio became Makailas confidant, she was unaware of the terrifying memories she had repressed deep in her mind. She had not been accustomed to thinking of herself; she was mainly focused on saving her identical twin sister Maggie from what she did not know. Father Ignacio is unknowingly chosen by God to save the twins from their horrible reality as children; a reality that is revealed to him through horrifying dreams and visions. Confronting the past that still tries to attack the twins lives as adults becomes his purpose in life, not only to serve God, but to save himself in saving them. One twin wont be freed without the other, and as their horrifying experiences unravel, they discover that their story, horrid as it may be, was all part of a greater task God wanted them to take.
