

The Arabian Billionaire, Book One: Arabian Seduction

Josie is a disorganized, clumsy, intelligent, hardworking college intern who loves engineering. On a trip to the Middle Eastern paradise of El-Safar with several classmates and her best friend, Fiona, Josie is ready to get out in the field and out of the orientation process. And now, she's been given a desk job that's keeping her from the gritty work she loves. But the man who is keeping her from her passion is also determined to impassion her in other ways both good and bad. Sheikh Jamal, the handsome billionaire and owner of the business that Josie is interning for, may find Josie to be unkempt and shameless, but he's inexplicably drawn to her, even giving her a personal assignment to keep her nearby. Witness a competition of strong-willed minds as pressure builds from both sides to make Josie a suitable match for the Arabian billionaire.
