

The Gentle Grafter

A trust is its weakest point, said Jeff Peters. That, said I, sounds like one of those unintelligible remarks such as, Why is a policeman? It is not, said Jeff. There are no relations between a trust and a policeman. My remark was an epitograman axisa kind of mulctem in parvo. What it means is that a trust is like an egg, and it is not like an egg. If you want to break an egg you have to do it from the outside. The only way to break up a trust is from the inside. Keep sitting on it until it hatches. Look at the brood of young colleges and libraries thats chirping and peeping all over the country. Yes, sir, every trust bears in its own bosom the seeds of its destruction like a rooster that crows near a Georgia colored Methodist camp meeting, or a Republican announcing himself a candidate for governor of Texas.
