

The Good Girl (Volume 1)

Gabriella Townsend is by all definition a Good Girl. She's always done the right thing. Studied hard and focused on starting her career. She interned at Morgan Grant for two semesters and there's no other company she wants to work for. However, when she graduates, the only job available is floating assistant. She takes it hoping for a permanent position. Almost two years later and she's still floating. After completing her last assignment, she's summoned to Human Resources for her next assignment and that when her life changes.
