

The Unruly Queen: The Life Of Queen Caroline

At the tawdry, extravagant heart of Englands Regency period - 1811 to 1820 - lay the bitter mismatch between the Prince and Princess of Wales. When the Prince Regent (later King George IV) separated from Princess Caroline in 1796, their disastrous, and probably bigamous, marriage was mercilessly ridiculed by the satirists and caricaturists of the day. The separation itself eventually led to the greatest scandal in British royal history: the trial of Queen Caroline for adultery. At her trial before the House of Lords, the dignity and honor of the British Crown was shredded, and Britain was apparently on the brink of revolution. In this thorough and superbly written biography, Fraser paints a brilliantly detailed portrait of an ill-treated but irrepressible woman who refused to be victimized.
