

The Traitor of Oda

In this exciting and unique mystery novel, action moves between ancient Asia, Washington DC, Moscow, London, Bahamas, and modern Central Asia. CIA field analyst, Simon Pettit, stationed in Osaka, surprisingly learns to converse with a spirit named Soji who was a Ninjutsu Master in thirteenth century Japan. With Sojis guidance, Simon blossoms into a top CIA field operative and, after returning to Washington, he and Frank Grant, an ex-marine banker, battle crooked politicians, some New Jersey mafia, and Central Asian gangsters to save lives and the Clinton administrations reputation. Lastly, the identity of the Traitor of Oda is uncovered and we learn how that treachery led Simon to a final confrontation in Kyrgyzstan.
