

Into Thin Air: The Disappearance of Flight MH370

A young Iranian student from a broken home seeks refuge in his mother's Christian faith, but his skill in manipulating wireless command sequences seem to dictate another path. US intelligence has an interest in the boy, and the program he is developing for a known terror recruiter at the University. A green analyst is sent to befriend the young man and bring him to America, but competing forces have other plans. A Russian team is intent on taking the prize at all costs, while a separate faction inside the CIA determines that it is simply too risky to try and save the boy. Follow the young Iranian and his friend on their desperate journey from Iran to the streets of Kuala Lumpur as they narrowly escape the Russians, only to fall into the hands of the agency eraser who is bent on destroying them. One man, an agent brought out of retirement, has a chance to save them from his former associate. The four parties come face to face in the air aboard flight MH370. A tense battle ensues as they employ all their tricks, but only one will win and everything else will disappear into thin air.
