

Can There Be More?

How fast can a persons entire life change? Have you ever thought about how one event in a persons life can alter the path of not only that person, but the lives of those they encounter? Have you reached a point where it hurts to even hope any more? Do you find yourself simply dissatisfied with life, wondering Is this it? Heather Hogans memoir Can There Be More? invites readers into one womans journey through relationships, divorce, pregnancy, fears, triumphs, joythe human condition, offering wisdom perfect for any woman who has experienced both the burn and the beauty of love. Beset by the difficulties of losing her mother at a young age and her fathers subsequent battles with alcoholism, this is a story of endurance and aspirations for a better life. Through an insightful and brutally honest exploration of her past, Hogan relates a legacy not of perfection but of enduring thankfulness, challenging her readers to forage through their trials and find lifes many blessings. Heather Hogan lives in Concord, CA with her boyfriend Mark and their five children between the two of them. She owns a womens boutique, Sorelle, and also runs her website, www.sorelleboutique.com.
