

Winters Tales

In a word - magic! Winters Tales includes eleven short stories which quickly draw in the reader. Dinesen has a gift for sparking interest in her characters from the outset and for pulling you into another world... and making you linger there long after the tale is over. Most of the stories are set in Denmark, the authors native land, and take place between the 13th and 19th century. Dinesens nostalgia for her country and its people can be felt strongly, which is part of the spell of these tales. This collection includes: The Young Man With The Carnation Sorrow-Acre The Heroine The Sailor-Boys Tale The Pearls The Invincible Slave-Owners The Dreaming Child Alkmene The Fish Peter And Rosa A Consolatory Tale
