You are cordially invited... After a mishap involving a stripper and a coffin, event planner Lucky Gould-Bang is fired for the third time in three months. When a position for Post Conviction Coordinator pops up at the Bureau of Prisons, Lucky jumps at the chance with no clue what it involves. Finding out she will be planning recently re-instated executions, Lucky finds herself dealing with an ambitious Governor, smarmy death industry executives, protesters and a spree murderer cum pastor on a regular basis, all while trying to do the Governors bidding by putting on family friendly executions. At the Governors request, to attend the execution of..

Madison Madigan is tired of everyone seeing her as Lil Maddie, First Granddaughter of the state of Illinois. Shes Governor now and she will do anything to win the office on her own merit, even if she has to rely on voters from the other party get there. She reinstated the death penalty over her Partys wishes and now shes determined to make it something everyone is talking about...and not because a run of the mill death by electrocution turned into a barbecue. Her key to winning is Pastor Bishop Parsons--will she commute his sentence or wont she--now all she has to do is make a decision. On this day at the following time... Pastor Bishop Parsons doesnt deny his sordid past. A former drug addict on Death Row for the spree murders of ten people. But twenty years into his sentence he is a reformed man; Pastor of the largest e-church in the country, fundraiser for the upper crust and media darling. Hes not ready to die and hell do anything he can to stop it...even invoking religion.
